A Frog In The Bog
A Frog in the Bog is a great book for young children. It follows a Frog who can't quite get enough to eat. He searches the bog to find everything he can eat. He eats worms, bugs, and other critters you would find in a bog. When the Frog is almost completely full and continuing to grow from all of the bugs he has eaten he is met with a surprise.

A Frog in the Bog by Karma Wilson - Goodreads
There's a small green frog on a half-sunk log in the middle of the bog. He eats one tick, two fleas, three flies, four slugs, and five snails. And the frog gets a whole lot bigger. Then a hungry gator shows up, ready to eat the big fat frog. The frog opens his mouth wide to scream and out comes everything he's eaten!

Frogs feed on slugs, insects, worms, spiders and similar prey, but do not predate aquatic organisms. In winter frogs hide in frost-free refuges, under tree stumps, in stacks of turf, or in rock piles where they enter torpor until the following spring. Frog Profile Food: Slugs, worms, flies and other insects. The frog's long sticky tongue is attached to the front part of the mouth, so that it can flick out to catch food.

The bog itself is a carnival of color where harlequin fleas romp among snails with candy-striped shells. The story, about a gluttonous frog and the creatures that wind up in his belly, is witty and entertaining throughout. The ending has a cute surprise and a happy resolution for all.

From the bestselling author of "Bear Snores On" comes this hilariously illustrated story that teaches young readers the concept of counting from one to five and back again. Full color.

Features animals, insects, and plants in a bog.

Take a peek into an environment loaded with frogs, bugs, birds, and more. Budding naturalists can find bogs all over--maybe even in their own neighborhoods. A handy field guide in the back helps young readers identify the plants and animals illustrated throughout the book.

It's the frog on a jet-rocket log versus the dog on the jet-rocket cog! Who will win the race around the bog? A rhyming story of hijinks and hilarity that will delight Andy fans, especially beginner readers, accompanied by Terry Denton's energetically comic illustrations. This story first appeared in The Cat on the Mat is Flat, which featured a collection of short stories. The original black and white illustrations are now in colour, and the story has been redesigned in a larger format.

This book takes readers outside to see and hear all the sights and sounds of frogs. The illustrations are fun and use the sounds of the frogs to direct the readers eye to all the cool sounds they make. Accurate scientific information accompanies all of the fun of heading out to go exploring for frogs! When frogs get together, they love to sing! They fill their big, bulgy throat pouch with air and sing out loud. Some peep, some trill, some growl, some creek, and some go WAH, WAH, WAH! It's a chorus that happens near almost every pond and stream. Learn more about these delightful creatures-and sing along with them! A perfect book for: parents and teachers needing homeschool supplies for kindergarten (or any grade!) anyone looking for bug books and singalong books for toddlers! anyone looking for children's books to help instill an appreciation of our planet!

When three true bug brothers set off to make their own homes in the bog on St. John's River in Florida, they are relentlessly pursued by a hungry frog and helped by other bog bugs.

Ten polliwogs swim in a muddy bog, until one by one, the polliwogs turn into frogs during a rainstorm.

A frog in the bog grows larger and larger as he eats more and more bugs, until he attracts the attention of an alligator who puts an end to his eating.

Text and color illustrations introduce frogs and their vital role in environmental balance in places all over the world.

Bog spends his days quietly in the marsh. Until, one day he meets Mog. Together, they go on a trip up the lake. On their way, they meet new friends, dive for fish and plants, and watch the bugs go by. Bog grows very fond of Mog and at the end of their trip he has a surprise for her.
