Ethnicity, Nationalism and Conflict in and after the ... As the Soviet Union began to collapse, social disintegration and political instability fueled a surge in ethnic conflict.[4] Social and economic disparities, along with ethnic differences, created an upsurge in nationalism within groups and discrimination between groups. In particular, disputes over territorial boundaries have been the source of conflict between states experiencing political transition and upheaval.

Ethnic conflicts in the Soviet Union - Wikipedia The purpose of this paper is to challenge the widely held viewpoint in Western studies of the USSR that ethnic nationalism is necessarily a threat to the Soviet state. After questioning of the prem...

After the USSR: Ethnicity, Nationalism and Politics in the ... Russian nationalism, the Russian version of nationalism, promotes the celebration and appreciation of Russian culture and history, as well as Russian cultural identity and unity. Russian nationalism first rose to prominence in the early 19th century, and became closely related to pan-Slavism, from its origin during the Russian Empire to the Soviet Union and beyond. Russian nationalism today, however, is either viewed as an ethnic-type nationalism, or multi-racial nationalism.
