For reception, production, interaction, and some competences, the CEFR defines six common reference levels (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2), using "can-do" descriptors to define the learner/user's proficiency at each level. The common reference levels provide a basis for comparing second/foreign language curricula, textbooks, courses, and exams.

The descriptors specify progressive mastery of each skill, which is graded on a six-level scale (A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2). However, for textbook authors, teachers and other professionals, the specification set out in the CEFR may appear excessively broad, particularly since individual languages are not addressed.
