Sri Chaitanya is the Kali-yuga avatara, and He descended for the purpose of establishing the yuga dharma, which in this age is the chanting of Lord Krishna's names. He appeared in the guise of a Devotee to perfectly show how the process of devotion should be followed and applied. It is something like a teacher drawing on the black board "A B C".

Shastric Evidence of Sri Chaitanya's Divine Appearance ... Caitanya Upanisad is a part of the Atharva Veda, and Bhaktivinoda Thakura had rediscovered the manuscripts. He got hold of an ancient edition of the Astharva Veda, and when the Vaisnava community encouraged him, he
