Book Reviews for Construction: Interactive Fun with Fold ...

Make a crease by folding it in half. Fold the two sides to that center crease. Unfold the top flap and fold the bottom left corner to the line of the bottom flap. Then undo the previous fold before folding the top flap back down. Rotate the paper 180 degrees and repeat step 4 (not 5 too).

This interactive book introduces young children to the world of the bustling construction site. Vibrantly illustrated background, stickers, and punch-outs come together to provide hours of imaginative fun. The background scene, a stand-up panorama of the construction site, is perfect for sticking as the child envisions his very own site, and then serves as the backdrop to punch-out playtime. The sturdy punch-outs are perfectly sized for little hands, and include boy and girl workers and machinery. Stickers include jackhammer, hard hats, toolboxes, and more. All together, it makes for interactive play and limitless fun.

California Treasures is a research-based reading and language arts program for Grades K-6 that: builds a lifelong love of reading through explicit systematic instruction coupled with time-honored classics, contemporary nonfiction, and rich literature; addresses the four key aspects of language arts every day: listening, speaking, reading, and writing; integrates print resources with digital resources providing teachers with options for teaching styles; offers an equitable parallel Spanish program, California Tesoros de lectura; follows California's revised English language development standards by incorporating the required English language support into the program and providing a complete English language development component to assist students transitioning into English.
