Creature Feature takes place in 1962. Kathy Anderson is a serious actress who, for a number of years, has been portraying Vivacia, the sexy vampire woman hostess on a late-night TV show in Chicago. Vivacia's House of Horrors runs old monster movies from the 40s and 50s- "creature features," as they were known. Kathy is sick and tired of playing Vivacia, so she quits the show and decides to go to New York to become a star on Broadway. On the way there she stops to see her parents in the sleepy little town of Placidville where she grew up. But something very strange is going on in the town, the people, including her parents, are acting weird, very weird. What's going on? Kathy eventually finds out. The townspeople pull off their masks and reveal themselves to be various horrible creatures of many kinds of horribleness, led by Demon. And once they reveal themselves they-ask Kathy as Vivacia to be their presidential candidate so they can take over America!

Jarrold Parker was the perfect teenager. Until the million-year-old monster in King Lake killed his little brother. Now Jarrold only cares about one thing: sweet revenge. He'll face down friends, zombies, even the end of the world to get it. NOTHING--NOT FRIENDS, NOT ZOMBIE SKELETONS, NOT THE END OF THE WORLD--WILL KEEP JARROLD PARKER FROM REVENGE. Eons ago, visitors from outer space buried an item of unimaginable power in the primordial swamps that would one day become King Lake--a quaint little basin on the edge of Whisper, USA. Millions of years later, a comet's radioactive waves awaken the monster slumbering beneath the lake. As the beast feeds on America's sweet, delicious youth, brain-slugs infect the quiet town, causing victims to vomit up their kill-hungry, zombified skeletons. But for seventeen-year-old Jarrold Parker, none of that stuff matters much. For him, this isn't about the Apocalypse. It's about payback. Nothing--not his friends, not the undead, not even the end of the world--will keep him from vengeance. Collects the complete five issue series.
