brains for it" -- and
leave it at that.

Why is science so
intimidating, and
why do people let themselves feel this way? What makes one person
a scientist and
another disinclined
even to learn how to read graphs?

The idea that scientists are

Download Free Forensic

people who wear lab coats and are somehow smarter than the rest of us is a common, yet dangerous, misconception that puts science on an intimidating pedestal. How did science become so divorced from everyday experience? In

Download Free Forensic

Eureka, science popularizer Chad Orzel argues that even the people who are most forthright about hating science are doing science, often without even knowing it. Orzel shows that science is central to the human experience: every human can think like a scientist, and regularly does so in the course of everyday activities.

The common misconception is that science is a body of (boring, abstract, often mathematical) facts. In truth, science is a process: Looking at
