Not noticing the inside of me. They just look at the clothes I wear. They don't know how I feel. They think I'm always glad, But there's something they don't know. I'm the one who's feeling sad. Both do and am act as auxiliary verbs here, but different forms of the main verb follow: Don't + base form of the verb - I don't eat cheese. I'm not + participle - I'm not eating cheese. Note there are other predicates available as well: adjectives and nouns - I'm not fond of cheese; I'm not a fan of cheese.

I'm Not There uses a nonlinear narrative, shifting between six characters in separate storylines "inspired by the music and many lives of Bob Dylan". Each character represents a different facet of Dylan's public persona: poet (Arthur Rimbaud), prophet (Jack Rollins/Father John), outlaw (Billy McCarty), fake (Woody Guthrie), "rock and roll martyr" (Jude Quinn), and "star of electricity" (Robbie Clark).
