The Language of the Birds is a masterpiece of Eastern Turkish literature (now Uzbek), and was written by one of Central Asia's most prominent poets, Alisher Nava'i, shortly before his death in 1501. The story begins with the birds of the world realizing

they are far from their king and so they begin their arduous
journey with the assistance of the wise bird Hoopoe as their guide. Hoopoe listens
to their complaints
and excuses along
the way and
encourages them to seek true life even though the journey is sometimes painful.

This epic poem in prose form contains many anecdotes and stories from the oral history of the Silk Road and Islam. Through this story, people are exhorted to rise above any excuse they might have in their spiritual pilgrimage. Alisher Nava'i (1441-1501) is renowned in Central

proverbs are found

of the Uzbek

language. His words
for peace and against oppression are as
timely today as they were 5 centuries ago.

Nava'i lived in Herat, Afghanistan. His

Nava'i thought is

rational and is ready to endure anything for the beloved. This
