The Disease to Please...Do you Have it?The-Disease-To-Please

Those who suffer from the 'Disease to Please' are people who say 'Yes' when they really want to say 'No'. For them, the uncontrollable need for the elusive approval of others is an addiction. Their debilitating fears of anger and confrontation force them to use 'niceness' and 'people-pleasing' as self-defense camouflage.

The disease to please is an insidious habit that will turn you into a lying human bag of resentment. But before getting into what it is, let's cover what it's not: It's not the quality of being a thoughtful, empathetic person who cares about other people's needs and emotional well-being. That's compassion and kindness—and those are positive traits to possess. The disease part comes ...
