It was even better the second time. The real Simon Kenton was a real larger than life person including Tecumseh, William Henry Harrison and George Rogers Clark. I only wish this book, and the others, Wilderness War, wilderness Empire, Dark and Bloody Ground, and Tecumseh would be made into a feature film.

Books by Allan W. Eckert (Author of The Frontiersmen)

Eckert has done the country an invaluable service by recording our early history from the French and Indian War to end of the Shawnee country. Since the film seems unlikely everyone should read each Eckert book. We both laugh and cry at tv reporters that ask our young college students basic history questions they are unable to answer.
