In The Incurable Romantic, Frank Tallis recounts the extraordinary stories of patients who are, quite literally, madly in love: a woman becomes utterly convinced that her dentist is secretly infatuated with her and drives him to leave the country; a man destroys his massive fortune through trysts with over three thousand prostitutes -- because his ego requires that they fall in love with him; a beautiful woman's pathological jealousy destroys the men who love her. Along the way, we learn a ...

The Incurable Romantic tells the stories of patients whose love/desire/obsession has become problematic for them (and often others). This is mostly a sympathetic collection of tales of mental illness related to romantic and/or sexual feelings (not love), but it leaves you thinking when love actually crosses the line to madness.

TIme, and the Incurable Romantic," however, is that it turns Marcus - a wonderful, delightful, vibrantly funny yet heartbreakingly tragic figure - into the sci-fi equivalent of a pasty guy in a basement with a stalker wall. My Final Rating: 4/10 Being fair, it is well-written and no great chore to read. So I can't give it a lower score, tempted ...
